EMILY'S WINE CLUB SELECTIONS FOR MARCH

Spreitzer Estate Riesling Trocken 2015 Rheingau, Germany

Younger vines from one of the oldest wineries in the region, and one of my favorites I've visited. The new generation makes a clean, modern style wine--Peaches, yellow plums, and an underlying taut core of salty beach air. It finishes fine, pure and elegant, with a subtle earthy note. And it goes with absolutely everything.

$17.99

Greg Norman Shiraz 2018 Limestone Coast, Australia

Norman has completely reinvented his line this year, with pleasant changes including new winemaker Ben Riggs (of Shooofly). The formerly jammy fruit bomb is now a dark brambly berry patch with notes of bittersweet chocolate and ripe cherry. Anything from lamb to a burger... or just hard cheeses and charcuterie is great.

$11.99

Paris Valley Road Founder's Blend 2017 Paso Robles, California

30% Zin, 30% Syrah, 30% Petit Sirah, 10% Cab

A smokey nose of hefty blueberry and boysenberry fruit makes you think the wine's going to be super heavy. But the palate is dark chocolate, vanilla, and tannin with a little bit of heat and black currant. It has a well-knit backbone of hefty black fruit and a savory note of dried herbs. Put it with red meat, game, potatoes, and hard cheese.

$15.99

This Month's Feature: DOUBLE FEATURE!

Aranjuez Duo 2017 Tarija, Bolivia

50% Tannat, 50% Merlot

500 years of winemaking resulted in a great blend of good tannic structure and elegance of fruit. Raspberry, vanilla, blackberry, and cigar smoke make a nice tapestry of complex flavor and a long, pretty finish. Perfect for vegetable dishes.

$16.99

Wine Club deal of the month = $10.99!

Douloufakis Femina 2018 Crete, Greece

Malvasia

A big, juicy wine with a super tart, waxy backbone. The flavors are mango, papaya, and pineapple but the aromas are incisive, bold florals. It's a dry mouthful of brisk flavor. Put it with Asian dishes, curries, or sushi with wasabi.

$15.99

Wine Club deal of the month = $10.99!

Wine Club Cru Level RED!

Fattoria di Magliano Altizi 2015 Maremma, Tuscany, Italy 100% Cabernet Franc

A beautiful ruby-garnet violet color, with a dried herb, rosemary-laced, smoky nose. Full and ripe, with currants, black cherry, and mulberry. Anise, bay leaf, and cedar finish it off. Still tight at first--let it open for all the asian spice to come out. Really pretty after 5 years in the bottle, and it's perfect with game, salami, olives, and risotto.

$47.99

Cru Red deal of the month = $27.99

Wine Club Cru Level WHITE!

Prieler Chardonnay Ried Sinner 2016 Leithaberg, Burgenland, Austria

This biodynamic winery does a wonderful job of making spot-on Burgundy in Eastern Austria! Smoky toasted hazelnut and fresh herbs surround yellow apple and pear, with lemon peel and earthy hay on the finish. The finish is fresh despite the aromatic weight. It lasts and lasts. Smoked fish and poultry are spot-on. Only 150 cases came into the USA.

$28.99

Rosé of the month

Ian Brand P'tit Paysan Rose 2019 Ian Brand P'tit Paysan Rose 2019

Like a sno cone of watermelon, strawberry, and orange. But the finish has crushed stones and lime juice to snap it into place and keep it from being super juicy. Hints of ripe tangerine fruit and grapefruit peel give it a touch of grip. It's the perfect rose for salads and picnic fare.

$19.99

Wine Club is the best deal in town!

PLUS, $5 off each feature and extra case discounts too!
